

THE EUROPEAN MAGAZINE, Vol. XXVI. completing 1794, or any former Volume, which contains Portraits and Biography of eminent Persons, History, Anecdotes, &c. &c. are kept ready bound for the convenience of Friends abroad, to whom they have ever been the most acceptable Present from England.

The late Debates in the House of Commons on the state of the Navy and Ship-Building evinces the necessity of pursuing the various objects as pointed out on the BLUE WRAPPER of this Magazine, where two pages are always kept for such useful projects as may be communicated to us.

The Number for JANUARY is this day published, and will contain the remaining part of the Observations on Ship-Building by a Naval Officer, and another Dissertation on an important and POPULAR Subject.

These important Papers are collected in 1 vol. 8vo. price 8s. 6d. in Boards.

Printed for J. SEWELL, No. 32, Cornhill.
